

Call for Dancers

Join DaCo - Dance Collaboration Lab!

About

DaCo is an educational and performance-oriented program developed by Angela Blumberg Dance (ABD). The program supports choreographic practices by providing emerging choreographers with resources and tools to deepen their research. DaCo is currently looking for professional dancers to join the program. Each dancer has the opportunity to work with an emerging choreographer over the course of two weeks and participate in a work-in-progress showing open to the public on September 2, 2023.

Guidelines

- Dancers must have a professional background in dance.
- Dancers must be available for the entire time of the residency.

What we offer

- DaCo will invite up to nine professional dancers to join our 2-week choreographic residency in Toronto
- The residency includes 2-3 hours of rehearsal per day per dancer
- A work-in-progress showing at the end of the residency where choreographers and dancers present their research to the public
- An hourly fee of $30

Timeline

DaCo will take place in Toronto from August 19 – September 2, 2023

- Submit your application by June 15, 2023
- Notification of successful applicants: July 2, 2023
- Rehearsals: August 19 – September 2, 2023
3 hours / day (exact time TBC)
+ work-in-progress showing on September 2, 2023

The Application

- Please include your full name and address, including postal code, e-mail address, contact number and website (if available)
- Please describe your dance experience. What are your preferred styles of dance? What are you hoping to gain from this experience? (maximum 500 words).
- Provide your resumé (mandatory) and a short video sample of your work (if available) – maximum 3 minutes.

Forward your Application to:

Angela Blumberg Dance

angelablumbergdance@gmail.com

Thank you for your interest in joining DaCo!